

Work Where Your Mind Matters

Strategy and Product Internship December 2024 - February 2025

About the Position

As a Strategy and Product Intern, you'll learn how we solve problems across departments to support the firm's growth in an incredibly competitive global market.

Our Strategy and Product department sits at the intersection of several teams, including Trading, Technology, Compliance, Finance, Operations, and more. With this unique, holistic perspective, interns are able to see how all parts of the firm interact and intersect with each other, getting a comprehensive overview of our business.

About You

We don't expect you to have a background in finance or any other specific field—we're looking for smart people who enjoy solving interesting problems. You should be:

- Planning to graduate in 2025
- Interested in developing a broad range of technical skills, from working with and analyzing data to understanding and writing code
- Able to evaluate processes and create informed, concrete proposals (which you'll proactively lead from start to finish)
- Reliable and courteous, with strong organizational, interpersonal, and communication skills
- Eager to ask questions, admit mistakes, and constantly deepen your understanding
- Has analytical experience using systematic problem solving (ie: through STEM coursework, previous work experience, extracurricular activities, etc.)
- Fluency in English required

About Us

Jane Street works differently. We are a quantitative trading firm active on more than 200 trading venues across 45 countries. As a liquidity provider and market maker, we help form the backbone of global markets.
